Just keep on eating bran and other roughage, and if you are in good health you will soon be a wreck, says Dr. Walter C. Alvarez, of the Mayo Clinic, Rochester. He also says the Vitamin had is pure bunk, and if people will eat what agrees with them there would be no need for dieting. His opinion is concurred in by 470 physicians throughout the states.

Hot air to the amount of 1,125,000 words was let loose during the recent session of the Alberta Parliament. On the basis of the combined indemnities of the sixty-three members, the cost to the province was 13.26 cents per word. That is a much higher rate than any newspaper in Canada pays for a much higher class of words. In the nine weeks the legislators worked 140 hours, and their pay amounted to $206,000. Its a lot better job than farming the land.

This is a new one. On Saturday last at New York, SOS calls were sent out by a ship apparently in distress, thirty miles out at sea. All available U.S. Coastguard boats at once made for the place indicated in the help signals, but when they arrived there was no ship in sight. However, while the coast guards were on their errand of mercy, a rum runner unloaded a large cargo of liquor valued at $200,000 to a small craft from New York, and made a clean get-away. Verily, prohibition in the U.S. is a wonderful success.

Mr. Ivan Morris was around to a number of residents of this district last week in an effort to introduce raw Turner Valley gasoline. He met with indifferent success as most of us are broke this Spring.

On Wednesday night a number of neighbors, sponsored by the Social Evening Club, paid a surprise party to Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Kinley, at their home. Quite a crowd attended and all had an enjoyable time.

Some Simple Menus for The After-School Meal

BY EDWINA NOLAN

Director of Home Service, General Electric Refrigeration Department

IN the days of our childhood we all have heard the admonition, oft repeated: "No eating between meals!"

But times have changed. Today we have carefully supervised diets which include body-building foods for growing, healthy youngsters, who in school and play rapidly use up their energy and bodily substances. And we have new and scientific ideas about meals, foods and their values.

Growing children of school age, who play hard outdoors until dusk, should not go from noon until six or seven o'clock without food.

Often, if he does, he over-eats too fast at the evening meal or he may be unduly fatigued and be too tired to eat the things his body requires. Hence, the after-school meal.

It doesn't need to be much, as the following suggested week's schedule indicates:

Monday—Milk, sandwich of graham bread and peanut butter, or sage.

Tuesday—Milk and rice, fruit juice, oatmeal cookie.

Wednesday—Milk, sandwich of graham bread, raw carrot (ground) and raisins.

Thursday—Fruit juice, sandwich of graham bread with cottage cheese, soft ginger cookie.

Friday—Milk, sandwich of graham bread with finely cut raw cabbage, apple.

Saturday—Milk, sandwich of graham bread and sliced raw tomato, soft ginger cookie.

Sunday—Banana (ripe), oatmeal cookie.

Saturday and Sunday are as important in this schedule as school days if we are to be regular.

These four o'clock bites must be simple, both in the kind of food and in the preparation as the appetite for the evening meal must not be dulled. For that reason, very sweet foods, such as desserts, are best omitted for the after-school meal.

The effect of the new regulations is that if gasoline is brought into Canada at lower than these figures, the dumping duty automatically applies.

Price cutting in some parts of the United States, which in some quarters has been described as a "gasoline war," is understood to have impelled the Minister of National Revenue to take action to prevent Canadian refiners suffering from unfair competition.

By the tariff resolutions passed last September at the special session of Parliament, duty on refined gasoline was set under the general tariff which applies to the United States, at two and one-half cents a gallon.

ENFORCEMENT OF DRY LAW ABANDONED IN ILLINOIS

Springfield, Ill., March 26.—The Illinois Senate Wednesday passed the bill repealing the state's prohibition enforcement laws. The measure already passed by the House, now goes to the governor.

The bill will repeal the state prohibition law under the search and seizure act. In effect, it would withdraw all state support from the Federal Government in fighting illicit manufacture and traffic in intoxicating liquor.

NO MORE GASOLINE DUMPING

Ottawa, March 27.—Values for the duty purposes have been fixed by Hon. E. B. Ryckman, Minister of National Revenue, on refined gasoline entering Canada from the United States. In a bulletin issued on Thursday to customs and excise officers values for import purposes were placed on gasoline for various refining areas across the border. The new regulations come into effect immediately.

Figures set in the regulations per wine gallon are: Pennsylvania, New York and district, which includes the Atlantic seaboard, 7.232 cents; Toledo, Detroit, Cleveland and district, 7.905 cents; Chicago and district, 7.805 cents; Minneapolis and district, 7.155 cents; Wood River, St. Louis and district, 6.405 cents; Mid-continent, which includes the states of Oklahoma, Kansas, part of Missouri, part of Arkansas and North Texas, 4.655 cents; South Texas, Louisiana and district, 6.205 cents; Wyoming and district, 6.655 cents; Montana and district, 7.055 cents.

The effect of the new regulations is that if gasoline is brought into Canada at lower than these figures, the dumping duty automatically applies.

Price cutting in some parts of the United States, which in some quarters has been described as a "gasoline war," is understood to have impelled the Minister of National Revenue to take action to prevent Canadian refiners suffering from unfair competition.

By the tariff resolutions passed last September at the special session of Parliament, duty on refined gasoline was set under the general tariff which applies to the United States, at two and one-half cents a gallon.

LARGE CANADIAN CONSOLIDATION

REPORTED NEAR
New York, March 26.—Negotiations for a $350,000,000 consolidation of leading pulp and paper companies in a corporation to be controlled largely by Canadian interests have reached an advanced stage, it was learned Wednesday, and an agreement is believed to be imminent so far as the Canadian International Paper Company, the Abitibi Power and Paper Company, Limited, and the Minnesota and Ontario Paper Company are concerned.

KING TUT WHEAT

Inquiries have been made at the University regarding King Tut wheat, which is supposed to have come from the tomb of Tutankhamen at Luxor, Egypt. It might be frankly stated that this is pure "bunk". There is not the slightest possibility of such ancient wheat germinating today. This King Tut wheat is nothing more than a revival of the old swindle game of selling undesirable wheat, together with much misinformation, to unsuspecting farmers. The wheat is usually known as Egyptian, and belongs to the class Triticum turgidum. In the seed trade it is some times sold as Alaska, Miracle, Seven-headed, Egyptian Wonder, and now as King Tut. Every few years some unscrupulous individuals seem to revive the old variety under a new name, and sell it at exorbitant prices.

Egyptian wheat is easily distinguished by its branched head. This characteristic gives it the appearance of being very productive, but as a matter of fact it does not yield as well as the commonly grown varieties of good bread wheats. It is of very poor milling and baking quality; for bread-making it is very undesirable.

If Egyptian wheat or any other wheats of the same type were grown in Alberta, it would have a most depressing effect on both the local and foreign markets. Our export grain containing mixtures of such varieties would have lower milling and baking qualities, as well as commercial grade. High and uniform quality in Canadian export grain is now more necessary than ever, since the struggle in the world grain markets grows more severe every year.

ANNUAL FEEDERS DAY

APRIL 11th
The annual Feeder's Day at the University of Alberta has been set for Saturday, April 11th, the last day of the Edmonton Spring Show week. This arrangement allows visitors to the city attending the show to take in this event at the University.

A full day's programme has been outlined based on the results of several years' experimental work conducted by the Department of Animal Husbandry with various classes of livestock. This includes studies to determine the most efficient ration and methods of feeding, the findings of which will be of practical value to all those interested in the production of livestock in the Province of Alberta.

To this event a cordial invitation is extended to visit the University on Saturday, April 11th. All sessions will be held at the new Livestock Pavilion.

WEED INSPECTORS AT UNIVERSITY, MARCH 30th TO APRIL 1st

The Annual Department of Agriculture Short Course for Weed Inspectors is being held at the University on March 30th to April 1st, inclusive, in rooms 34 and 142 Medical Building.

The course is being held later than usual this year in order that as many inspectors as possible may have their appointments before coming in to the course.

The programme will be confined strictly to talks on weed control, and talks of a general agricultural nature such as have been part of the programme in the past will be omitted.

In past years an examination has been held at the conclusion of the course and a certificate issued to those who passed the exam. There will be no certificates issued this year.

Speakers on the programme will be Dean E. A. Howes, of the University; H. A. Craig, Deputy Minister of Agriculture; G. M. Stewart from the Dominion Seed Branch, Calgary; Mr. George DeLong, from the Dominion Experimental Farm at Lacombe; Mr. E. W. Brundage of the Western Farmer; Mr. J. M. Hanson of the Field Husbandry Department, University of Alberta; Mr. W. G. Smith from the Raymond School of Agriculture; Mr. E. L. Gray, Field Crop Commissioner, and E. H. Buckingham, Assistant Field Crops Commissioner.

BLACKFALDS

A vote is to be taken on April 14 in Blackfalds whether or no a license shall be granted for a Beer Parlor.

There is a certain amount of alcohol in every glass of Beer. Alcohol is a slow poison and a brain destroyer, showing in a loss of alertness of mind and the dulling of the consciousness.

Talking with a garage proprietor in one of our small towns last fall about the economic loss to the community through the spending for beer he suddenly pointed across the street and said: "Do you see that car standing over there close to the hotel? Some day I am going to jack that car up and take off that right hind tire. That fellow bought that tire from me two months ago and said he would pay for it next week. Next week has never come. He has cash to spend for beer and he is in the beer room just now, but he has never been near me since I gave him credit for that tire. I am not only waiting for my money but he goes elsewhere for his gas now."

It is sometimes argued by the beer vendor that it means his "bread and butter." Five dollars is quickly spent in the beer parlor which would buy 50 or more loaves of bread. There is no value for the five dollars spent in beer to the drinker and in some cases the wife or children are compelled to make the distressing sacrifice.

The beer-room is a home wrecker, for in many cases of separation, it is found that the husband spends both his time and his money there, leaving the wife and family to loneliness and want.

The attitude of the parents is fixing the minds of the children either for or against the drink habit. Many parents are directly responsible for the failure of their sons through drink.

A beer parlor will not bring trade to a village, excepting of a few who have their cash for the drinks and ask the merchants and others to give them credit.

BLACKFALDS NEWS

March is going out as she came in, the last two days being beautiful.

Another burglary at Blackfalds! The vagrant broke one of the windows of the Post Office one night last week and entered the building. He ransacked some papers in the till, took a few packages of cigarettes, and the ballot box for the coming vote, possibly thinking that because it was locked it contained something valuable. He also broke into the garage through a back window, but the proprietor did not miss anything.

Third entrance was made in the pool elevator engine room and the gas tank drained. A couple of men were in Lacombe that same night and after damaging the car, a stolen one, sold it for $5.00. Nothing has been heard of them since.

The play last Friday night, "Yim-Yohnson's Yob" was well received. The club gave it at Sylvan Lake and Joffree as well. The actors did their parts well.

Do not miss the play and concert in Spruceville Hall on Thursday night April 2nd.

Mr. Parks and daughter Beverley, left on Monday for Coronation, Alberta.

Mr. John Lang shipped a carload of pure-bred Chorthorn Bulls to Calgary last week for the Spring Bull Sale. He left on Monday for Calgary accompanied by his daughter Margaret and Mrs. J. Davidson.

Easter Services next Sunday at Blodman 11 a.m. and at Blackfalds 8 p.m.

32 Physicians Report Findings On Sargon

So remarkable have been the results accomplished by Sargon in helping restore health to countless thousands of people that during the past thirty days alone thirty-two leading physicians have broken the rule of a life-time and have come out openly and publicly to give their unqualified endorsement.

So startling have been the reports in many of thousands of cases that selected physicians in principal cities were expressly retained to study the Sargon formula and report their findings so that the public might know the whole truth.

Outstanding among the number are:

Dr. P. K. Drummond, plant physician for the Ford Motor Company, Detroit, for 12 years.

Dr. C. J. Roberts, Philadelphia—Examining Physician for the Pennsylvania Railroad for 26 years.

Dr. W. L. Mair—Graduate McGill University Faculty of Medicine, Montreal—Medical Examiner for Sears-Robuck, Detroit.

Dr. G. Warburton—Graduate famous Bellevue Hospital Medical College, New York.

Dr. Eugene Parkins—Physician for Western Electric Company, Philadelphia.

W. W. Kern—Examining Physician for New York Life Insurance Company—and many others.

In order that the public may receive the full benefit of the advice of these well-known physicians, their reports will be published in later issues of this paper. The statement of physicians of such standing are perhaps without precedent. Study their reports and profit by their advice.

Mr. J. T. Reynolds, who has been ill some time has sufficiently recovered so that he is able visit with his daughters in Calgary for Easter week. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Reynolds and Clinton Willour their grandson.

A very unfortunate accident happened a little while ago in this district when the children were at school. All went well until away on in the afternoon when somehow a tragedy started among the children's riding ponies. Which one started the riot no one knew. But when school was out, to the dismay of the first of all, even the teacher, they found a little Shetland pony loose in a manger, huddled in a corner looking sadly at one of the larger horses lying dead in his stall, having been pierced in the side by a broken splinter. As a result none of the frightened animals wanted to carry their little mistresses home that evening. We sympathize with little Jean and her brothers in their loss of their friend and pet.

On Wednesday last, at Lacombe, by the Rev. R. B. Layton, Wilford Van Eaton, of Clive and Maude Bell Thomas of Tees; Walter Oren Thomas and Ella Lucinda Thomas, both of Tees were united in the bonds of matrimony. Only immediate friends of the young couples were in attendance. The newly weds will take up their residence in the Clive district, and take with them to their new homes the best wishes of their many friends.

A. M. CAMPBELL'SDangerous Legislation vs. Railways

Among the lately-introduced bills presented to the Legislature is an act to amend and consolidate the Debt Adjustment Act. Its main purpose is to extend to the entire province protective agrarian legislation which formerly was restricted to definite drought areas, and in essence it proclaims a modified moratorium for men actually engaged in farming operations.

Recent investigation by the agriculture committee of the Legislature revealed a general and laudable disposition on the part of creditors to give farmers all the latitude possible in meeting their obligations. When they are unable to pay, owing to prevailing quotations for grain, there has been no tendency to exercise undue and unfair pressure. But the present act is designed to make the debtor farmer unassailable.

The most serious aspect of the new legislation is that the government intends to appoint a board of review which can prevent foreclosures. The board will have the power of a judge. It is a serious matter to appoint a board and give it the power of a court of law. It is even more serious when the board is under the control of a class government, determined at all costs to protect one element of the population against all others.

Take the case of retailers in small urban communities, for example. They will be hit hard. They will be unable to take court action against farmer debtors if the government board intervenes. All a delinquent has to do is to apply to the government board for a certificate of exemption and the retailer is powerless.

Everyone has sympathy for the Alberta farmer in his present plight, and this sympathy has been shown by business houses in practical form without compulsion, but when a provincial government intervenes to wipe out the rights of creditors, there will be a nemesis. If general business cannot be assured of agrarian obligations being met without government interference, it will soon cease doing business with farmers. And the effect on outside capital will be even more devastating to Alberta. Capital is notoriously sensitive to hostile legislation. It is always on the alert for evidences that provincial legislators are putting obstructions in the way of the collection of just debts. Alberta has already a bad name in the financial world. The present act will not tend to modify that impression.

The Trucks vs. Railways

One of the Canadian Pacific Railway's celebrations of its fiftieth anniversary will consist of cancellation of the Crow's Nest train. This has been rendered imperative by motor bus competition.

It is an ironic twist of events. The company which foresaw the possibilities of the West, and took the initial chance—a chance considered at the time a particularly risky one—is now being ousted from one section of the West by those who have followed in its wake. Without the railway, the bus companies would not be able to operate. The roads along which their buses travel, and for the upkeep of which they pay no more than any other concern, were made possible by the railway for which maintenance of its own tracks has remained a major expenditure.

The situation is a difficult one. Nobody can deny the bus companies the right to utilize facilities that are at hand, nobody can dispute that, by utilizing them, they are taking an unfortunate advantage of railway companies.

Cancellation of the Crow's Nest train is one instance of the difficult competition the trans-continental railway of today has to face. The railway remains the only certain and reasonable form of transportation from the Atlantic to the Pacific. There is no significant competition in connection with long hauls of either passengers or of freight. Yet a great deal of the railway's revenue is derived from passengers who travel short distances—from one Ontario town to another, from one Saskatchewan town to another, or so on. It is here that the competitors of the railway are making significant inroads into its profits.

In cases where these concerns are operated upon a reliable basis, they are taking legitimate advantage of circumstances, and—apart from the disparity in maintenance costs—in many cases is holding its own. There are, however, other ventures, which are started by those who do not know the transportation business. These set out to under-cut railway prices. They succeed—for a time. Then inevitably, they find they cannot meet expenses. They go out of business, yet, in the meantime, a certain amount of business has been taken from the railway. There is, moreover no definite end to the number of persons who will start out in adequately supplied with facts and who will make an effort to operate transportation systems at cut-rate fares. The impact of these successful ventures—though they end in failure—upon the railway's revenues is, during the course of a year, of no inconsiderable proportions.

The Canadian Pacific Railway is encountering difficulties of a different nature, but, none the less, just as formidable, as it did in the days of laying the steel.

THE PRINCESS AND THE PLUMBER

Thursday, Friday and Saturday
Just suppose that you were a lone some little Princess of a very tiny principality in the Balkans and the men you believed to be a Duke, and had fallen in love with, turned out to be an American plumbing engineer? Or, on the other hand if you were the engineer and met what you thought was a charming little peasant girl, only to discover she was a real princess after all, and very resentful of your false claims—what would you do about it? Just see the "The Princess and the Plumber" at the Avalon this week end and find out the best way out of a position like that.

Also Chase, in "Girl Shock." Coming: "Forward March," April 9th, 10th and 11th.
"Unholy Three," April 16, 17, 18.
Next time you have taken your city guest to the movies only to have something go wrong with the projection-machine and the house is plunged in darkness, don't feel too ashamed and provincial. Just remember that projection machines are crackerjacks the world over. Even the one at Gramman's Chinese, Hollywood's most extra-special opsy house, is not above a few tricks. About three thousand or so cash customers almost lost "The Big Trail" the other night (twice), while someone coasted something back into running order.

A TECHNICAL VICTORY FOR BLACKFALDS "DRY"

There'll be no local option vote at Blackfalds on April 10 if some designing person or persons can prevent it, according to reports received on Friday by John D. Hunt, clerk of the executive council.

Sometime during Thursday night the office of the clerk of the Blackfalds municipal district was broken into and all papers stored therein in connection with the proposed local option vote, including ballots, lists, boxes and other items, were stolen.

However, Mr. Hunt said that he was not down-hearted yet and that having received an "SOS" for replacements, that other papers were being forwarded.

It is likely a closer look-out will be kept on the secretarial office at Blackfalds henceforward, or at least until after April 10.

With the exception of a few packets of cigarettes, the marauders took nothing else.

Will all members make a point to be at the Viny dinner, April 9th. All dues are now due; they have been reduced to $2.00. Comrade T. Wilkie will have a smile a mile long when he can show 100 p.c. paid up members.

WAR TRADE TO DEATH BETWEEN POOL AND 'TRADE' IS SEEN

Winnipeg, Man., March 28.—"War to the death between the grain trade and the Pool," is being waged in Manitoba, William Ivins, Labor member for Winnipeg, told the legislature Friday. He declared W. Sanford Evans, Independent Conservative, who had attacked government guarantees to the banks for advances to the Wheat Pools, was a spokesman for the "trade".

The legislature should know exactly where the organized grain trade stood, Mr. Ivins asserted. "Mr. Ivins has spoken—and it behooves farmers of the province to read exactly what he advises and then do exactly the opposite," he declared. The Labor member could see no possible compromise between the Pool and grain trade. Either one would win or the other.

In his opinion, "the trade is out to stab the Pools to death." The time would come, Mr. Ivins said, "when the premier of this province will be compelled to take a stand and introduce a bill to put out of business for all time the organized grain trade. I predict when that day comes, the farmer will win and that day is not so far distant as some of us think."

Mr. Ivins defended the government's Pool guarantee service.
